Translation of Good Agriculture Practice (GAP) Document

No. MD/IOSTA/01/2009

Dated 02.08.2010

IOSTA, International Organization of Spice Trade Associations is a non-profit professional organization designed as a common platform for the betterment of World Spice Industry. The members of the Organization include American Spice Trade Association (ASTA), European Spice Association (ESA), Canadian Spice Association, All Nippon Spice Association, Australian Spice Association, Vietnam Pepper Association, Spices Board of India, Brazilian Pepper Board, Spice Council of Sri Lanka and the International Pepper Community (IPC), Jakarta. The main objective of the Organization is to address common issues related to production, processing and food safety and seek sensible solutions to ensure the sustainability of the world Spice Industry.

Recently, IOSTA developed and published a document related to Good Agriculture Practices (GAP) for Spices. Now it is planning to publish the document in the local languages of the farming community in different countries. Hence we require the translation of the document in Spanish, French, Vietnamese, Sinhalese (Sri Lanka), Hindi, Kannada and Tamil. Presently the document is available in English with 20 A4 size pages and the approximate number of words will be 5000.
