Tender description: Outsourcing editorial work of Spice India Kannada (monthly) journal

Tender date: 20th April 2009

Closing date: 27th April 2009

The Spices Board is planning to outsource the editorial work of the monthly journal Spice India in Kannada language. The Spice India Kannada issue is a journal devoted to the development of spice farming, processing, marketing and exports of spices. Articles on growing and management of spice crops, focus on spices grown in Karnataka, post harvest practices, processing, value addition, marketing and exports, schemes and programmes of the Board, features on farm innovation etc. form the content of the journal.

We invite offers from interested and capable individuals/organizations who are able to undertake the work of compilation of articles and features of relevance to the spice industry, editing and page lay out with pictures, graphics etc. as per the directions of the Board every month based on a schedule. The Board will also provide materials for publication as and when needed. The cover page for the publication will be decided by the Board every month since as a matter of policy the same story will get published in the other language issues of Spice India.

The journal will have a total of 28 to 32 pages. The Board gives honorarium for articles published as per the guidelines stipulated

Interested parties may please submit their offers with the following details:
